TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1900.

NEWLANDS, JACKSON AND WHEELER.

Professor Jackson and D. O. Wheeler are opposing candidates for the State Senate. Whatever may be the result of the election, it will not injure either of the gentlemen. Mr. Wheeler is a noble specimen of manhood, and all the people in Washoe are aware of it. The writer's personal regard for Dan Wheeler is such that he is of the opinion there will be a special place for his kind in heaven that will not be crowded, more especially with editors of Republican papers.

The JOURNAL is informed about the influence there are at work in favor of Professor Jackson other than political. The need the State has for the services of a man who is up in mines and hydraulics is known to every intelligent man in the State, and Professor Jackson is that man. He is a man who secures the respect of those he meets in social and business matters, and from some unexplained cause succeeds in retaining it. Should the people make it known by their votes that they have concluded to avail themselves of the services of Professor Jackson and his learning, it will not reflect the least upon Mr. Wheeler as a man.

The Gazette is in trouble over the election of Jackson, believing he will vote for Mr. Newlands for Senator, which will not be the means of preventing any elector from voting for him, as Newlands and Jackson are rowing the same boat, which is loaded with future prosperity to the State. Newlands and Jackson have the same object in view, which is the development of the State's resources.

It is admitted to be a new departure for a Nevada man who is running for the legislature or for Congress to be a friend of the people among whom he lives, which is conclusive that not either of the gentlemen are owned by Bill Stewart or by Charlie Wallace. They are men of independent thought and action who will make it an object to secure for the people some of the benefits that the great natural wealth of the State has stored up for them. Stewart, Wallace and those who are sack men are opposed to that class of men being elected to office as prosperity will diminish opportunities for using the sack by bringing into the State a class that will not be influenced by its arguments.

The reasons in favor of supporting Jackson and Newlands are as many as there are resources in the State to be developed and as many more as there are sources of wealth and prosperity to follow development. It begins to look on the face of things as though the voters of Nevada had concluded to be men that cannot be influenced against their best interests by a sack or by a gang of political bums who make an appearance a few weeks before an election to secure the continued slavery of the people. It would not be a bad proceeding to give some of these sack fellows a rubbing down over a rail.

SENATOR STEWART paid a bill the other day—settled it out of court. He is in a precarious condition, but is slowly recovering from the effects, and his physicians think he will ultimately pull through.

BILL STEWART pretended to be silver but his real make up is brass, or his brazen face would never have been seen in Nevada after he had betrayed its people, but what else could be expected from a natural traitor.

The largest and most enthusiastic political meeting that the coast has witnessed was in San Francisco on Saturday evening. Bryan will receive the electoral vote of California.

STEWART and Wallace are supporting Farrington, which is all that should be required to satisfy the people that Farrington has become an enemy to the State and all there is in it.

FARRINGTON may be of the opinion that he is not a tool, but Wallace sees him when he has a job on hand that requires a tool of Farrington's kind.

IR HANNA can afford to throw $15,000 into a little State like Nevada, what untold millions he must expend in States like New York and Illinois.

SARDIS SUMMERFIELD is getting badly frost-bitten in his tour of the State. He had an audience of seven voters at Dayton and thirteen at Elko.

There never has been such an outpouring of the masses in the United States during any national campaign as occurred in Greater New York on Saturday evening, when the Democratic clubs came together and Bryan addressed the people. The number was estimated to be anywhere between two hundred thousand and a quarter of a million. Imperialism and trusts must go.

The sack was sent to the State to beat Newlands and elect Farrington to Congress which means that Farrington is a creature of Mark Hanna. The people have before them two candidates for Congress—one is a man and the other is a creature—which will you support the man or the thing.

PERSONAL

MENTION.

Gossip About the Migrating Public as They Come and Go.

P. O. Peterson is in from Beckwith. N. O. Roff of Carson spent Sunday in this city.

Ed. Larity came down from Verdi last evening.

Miss Conover of Reno has been engaged to teach the Aurora school for the ensuing term.

Kenneth Hamilton of the Reliance football team was the guest of Richard Ryland, Jr., Sunday.

Will R. Sharkey of the Sierra Valley Record and Mr. Newman of St. Marysville are spending a few days in Reno.

General Freight and Passenger Agent Bennett of the N.C.O. has returned from a business trip to Salt Lake.

Mrs. Henry Morris and daughter, Miss Venie, are here from San Francisco visiting with Mrs. Sol Levy, a sister of Mrs. Morris.

H. O. Schmidt of Minneapolis, a relative of Mrs. Col. H. B. Maxson is here on a visit for a few days. Mr. Schmidt states that he is greatly taken with Reno and its surroundings.

Bryan Strong in the East.

Congressman Newlands returned yesterday from Elko, Lander and Humboldt counties. He reports that the latter two counties will give Bryan three votes out of four. In Elko Mr. Bryan will also have a handsome majority.

Some Bryan men there have been supporting Mr. Farrington, but their number is decreasing every day. Mr. Newlands was unable to speak at Tuscarora and Eureka, but C. D. Van Duzer addressed large and interested meetings there. Mr. Van Duzer is doing excellent work for the fusion ticket. Mr. Newlands says his audiences in the eastern part of the State were the largest he ever addressed there.

A Strong Candidate.

A. Ravert, fusion candidate for the Assembly, came down from Verdi on the swing train last evening and did a little electioneering. He was in ill health the past month, and was prevented from campaigning, but expects to swing around the circle pretty lively the coming week. Mr. Ravert is one of Washoe's best and ablest young men. He is termed "The Book Worm of Dog Valley," is an able scholar, successful business man, and honest and honorable in all his dealings.

A Good Man Goes.

Rev. F. Vernon Jones threw a bomb shell into his congregation Sunday when he announced his resignation from the pastorate of the Congregational church. He gave ill health as his reason. The resignation goes into effect the first of the year.

Mr. Jones is an earnest man of strong convictions, but broad minded and liberal. He is a man among men and a boy among the boys.

Good and Faithful Servant.

W. H. McInnis cannot be beaten in his contest for re-election to the office of Sheriff. He is making a clean fight and is allowing his friends to make use of none but fair means in his behalf. "Mc" has ably filled the duties of his office. His record is his best argument.

Back from Europe.

Henry Anderson has returned from a summer trip to Europe. He spent a month or two at the Paris exposition and visited his old home in Denmark. Mr. Anderson enjoyed his trip immensely, but no part of it so much as his return to the riverside town.

Candidates' Ball.

Messrs. Julien and Wilson will give the candidates' ball this evening in the pavilion. An orchestra of eight pieces will furnish the music. A large attendance is expected and the dance will doubtless pass off very pleasantly.

Still They Come.

Rev. Phelps tied up a couple more pair of California divorcees yesterday. Judge Linn tried his hand in other nuptial events, and altogether eight hearts were made to rejoice as the birds in springtime.

Twenty tons of ore from the Reno Star mine was shipped to Selby's yesterday, making 38 tons within a week.
Nothing but second class ore is being shipped. It returns about $24 a ton above all expenses. A carload of first grade is sacked and lying in the ore house. It will mill from $250 to $2000 a ton, and this is the mine that no "sucker" would put up $10,000 on a few months ago. The old piano tuner, who last May didn't have a cent, now counts his income at a couple of thousand dollars a week, and is as yet merely blocking out his ore body. Nevada has another Comstock.

FARRINGTON'S SOPHISTRIES

Wallace's Puppet Booms Himself by Abusing Newlands.

Mr. Farrington, Republican congressional nominee, addressed an audience last night in the opera house on the issues of the day. From the speaker's standpoint there are three vital issues, to-wit: First, Congressman Newlands; second, Congressman Newlands; third, Congressman Newlands. All of these burning issues were discussed with burning eloquence.
If the three issues had been present they would have been burned to cinders, unless tears of laughter, excited by the indignant arguments, had quenched the flames.

Below are a few of Mr. Farrington's sentences, quoted literally:
"When you want legislation for railroads, elect a railroad servant." Precisely, Mr. Farrington. It is for the reason you give that we will turn you down.

"I will not criticize Mr. Newlands, in his private life." Thanks. We will not look the gift horse in the mouth.
"Newlands' elections are gained by brute force of lawless wealth." Pity the poverty of the Espee.

"Our motto is 'home rule.'" 'Home' is a new name to apply to the Black Box.

"Newlands leaves behind a trail of slime and corruption." Chaste eloquence is thine; O, Farrington. "Thy words like pure white snowflakes fall."
"There was a time when we selected our own Congressman." At this juncture C. C. Wallace broke into peals of silvery laughter.

"Will you strike down the prosperity of the (men who work for the) Southern Pacific Company for a sentimental love of free silver." The parentheses are ours.

"The administration has benefited the lead miners of Nevada." Yes, there are leaden bullets in the hearts of hundreds of brave American soldiers whom the administration sent across the sea to subjugate a race that returns lead for lead in defense of liberty.
Great and good is the administration that advances the price of the commodity that slays our boys in blue.

Campaign Story Proves False.

An attempt has been made by the fusion party to conduct an honorable campaign, but the Republican managers, it appears, fail to subdue their und-throwing proclivities.

Several politicians, prominent in the ranks of the g. o. p., were engaged yesterday aiding (?) Mr. Wheeler's cause by circulating a story to the effect that N. B. Clark of this city had charged Professor Jackson with failing to pay him for work performed.

Mr. Clark nails this lie by the following letter:

EDITOR JOURNAL: I was employed for quite a while in Prof. R. D. Jackson's mines and cyanide plants. He paid me good wages, and paid me promptly. The stories to the effect that I said he owes me money are consummate falsehoods, circulated by unprincipled people who are endeavoring to injure the reputation of one of the most honorable men in this county.
N. B. CLARK.

Death of an Old Settler.

John R. Dixon died last night at his home in this city. He was aged 75 years. He came to the coast in 1852 and resided in Reno ever since it was a town. In the early days of the Comstock he was engaged in freighting between Reno and Virginia.

The deceased is survived by the following children: John R. Dixon, Jr., Charles Dixon, William Dixon, Mrs.
Amelia Hart, Mrs. Ella Chamberlain, Mrs. Lila Riter and Mrs. Williams.
He also leaves twelve grand children and three great grand children.

THE SILVER ISSUE

P Carson Correspondent Discusses an Important Theme.

Mr. Dolliver of Iowa, speaking for the McKinley administration at the Carson opera house on Friday, said, and he emphasized his words with a gesture which was in all sense striking, that the silver issue is dead because the Republican administration has knocked it out in such a way that it cannot be revived.

Bryan tells all men, in New York and else where, to remember that the silver issue is very much alive. He proposes to help keep it alive.

There were Republicans who favored silver, yet despite Mr. Weaver's allur-ment's in 1892, and despite the abuse heaped upon them by eminent men who called them traitors, knaves and fools in 1894, remained with the party they had aided to build, because they had faith in its promises. In 1896, when the bad element of democracy, combined with those money interests which owe allegiance to nothing but greed, had captured the machinery and name of the Republican party, many of those Republicans who had equally disregarded allurement and abuse, voted for Bryan.

Today the McKinley administration says in effect: We have established the single gold standard; we have provided additional currency by farming out to banks the nation's sovereign right to issue money; we have killed the silver issue and have buried it.

Is this a sufficient reason for Republicans, who would not be misled by a mere name in 1896 to vote for Mc-Kinley now?

J. POUJADE.

A Warm Contest on Our Gridiron.

Next Saturday the Varsity team will line up against the redoubtable eleven of the San Jose Normal School. This is the team that gave Stanford such a hard rub a couple of weeks ago.

The Nevada boys, in spite of their good showing under adverse circumstances in last Saturday's game, have taken their defeat to heart and will work harder than ever to administer a decisive defeat to their foes from over the border.

It is a deplorable fact that the Reno people have the interests of the University so little at heart, as shown by the attendance at the splendid game with Reliance. The management went to an unusual expense in order to give our people a treat, but lost considerable money.

It is to be hoped that a much better crowd will greet the San Jose boys at the football field next Saturday.

An Artist Maniac.

Sam G. Porteous returned yesterday from California. He brought with him a photo of a remarkable painting that was recently hung in the capitol building at Sacramento. It is the work of an inmate of the Stockton insane asylum. The picture is artistically perfect, but the remarkable feature is in the faces of the portraits it contains. They display unmistakable lines of mental unbalance.

Public Speaking.

Hon. F. G. Newlands, W. H. A. Pike and others will address the people of Reno at the Opera House, Wednesday evening, October 31. The Comstock Glee Club will be in attendance and give a number of their new campaign songs. Everybody is invited.
